Interviewer: Hello, Maja. Thank you for coming. We're happy to write an interview for the school's magazine about you. Nice to meet you.

Maja: Good morning. Thank you for inviting me. Nice to meet you too.

Interviewer: So, tell us, Maja, how old are you and where are you from?

Maja: I'm eleven and I come from Slovenia. It's a small country in Europe.

Interviewer: How do you spell your name? Is it with a 'y'?

Interviewer: Yes, we spell it M-A-Y-A. And where exactly is Slovenia?

Maja: There are four countries around us: Croatia, Hungary, Austria and Italy. It's only about 45 minutes away by plane.

Interviewer: Right. Have you got any brothers or sisters?

Maja: Yes, I have. I've got a brother, his name's Matej and he's seven. And I've got a sister, she's only three years old. Her name's Mojca. Look. Here's a picture of my family.

Interviewer: Can you tell us about your family?

Maja: Yes, of course. I really love my younger siblings. Matej likes animals. He misses his dog Tor from Slovenia. And Mojca likes playing with legos. I like playing volleyball because I'm good at it.

Interviewer: Can Matej play any sports?

Maja: Yes, he can. He can play football very well. He would like to join the school's football team.

Interviewer: What about your parents?

Maja: They're great! Their names are Marta and Dominik. My mum's a great cook and my dad spends a lot of time with us at the weekend. He works a lot during the week because my mum's at home taking care of Mojca and us.

Interviewer: Have you got any pets here in England?

Maja: No, we haven't. But we live in a block of flats now and the flat is small. We've got a dog back in Slovenia and two cats, Miki and Mini. And a big house in a village. I miss the space and the countryside. But I love being part of this international city. London is great for tourists. It's interesting. I don't have a feeling that I live here now, because there are so many things that are new for me. I'd like to go to Madame
Tussauds soon and my brother would like to travel to Manchester by train to see the football stadium.

Interviewer: Hopefully you get to see all the sights in and around London soon. Enjoy exploring England as long as you stay here!

Maja: Thank you! I’m sure living in England is a good experience for us but I’m looking forward to moving back to Slovenia when our dad finishes his project for work in two years’ time.

Interviewer: Thank you and goodbye.

Maja: Bye!
